Hi David,

Sharon Smith has been one of my go-to reporters for going on four years in my capacity as a commissioning editor for publications including The Guardian, PC World, Techly & others.

Her grasp of both science, technology and health rounds is detailed, precise and backed by years of experience. Sharon is a joy to edit. Though her stories need little sub-editing and her reporting is thorough and well-researched, she is always responsive to critical feedback. Sharon holds herself to the highest standards and it is reflected in her work

I have been recommending Sharon for years but the centrality of the Sydney media industry is sometimes restrictive. I hope you can find a way to incorporate Sharon into an agile newsroom. She will be a valuable asset and any newsroom would be lucky to have her.

Feel free to give me a ring if you have any other questions.

Kind regards,

Claire
